

GREECE SOJOURN

Gluten Free Travel-Us, in collaboration with Kensington Tours, is delighted to bring you an unforgettable trip to Greece - gluten free, of course. This particular experience is more laidback for those who want culture but not too much exercise. We offer a more active one, as well. See other itinerary on the site.

Greece was the center of the world – a thriving hub of politics, philosophy, science and art. Sheltered by mountains and blessed with a coastline open to a glittering sea speckled with hundreds of islands, the gods couldn't have picked a prettier location for their kingdom on Earth. The archeological sites of ancient Athens reveal a rich culture whose achievements still stagger the mind more than 2,000 years after its fall, while the whitewashed hillside towns, azure waters, and snow-white beaches of island like Mykonos and Santorini dazzle the eye with their beauty. With so much to see and do wrapped in such an attractive package, the only downside to visiting Greece comes with the realization that ultimately, you'll have to leave.

Day 4 - Athens, Mykonos

A port transfer with a private vehicle and driver is provided. Enjoy a transfer by high speed ferry to Mykonos. The duration takes approximately 2.5 hours. Meet your private vehicle and driver for a port transfer. Remainder of the day at leisure.

Day 5 - Mykonos

During your half-day tour today, your private guide will take you on a walk of the sea front past the local fish and vegetable market. You will also have an opportunity to meet the island's mascot, Peter the pelican. On your way to Paraportiani Church, a famous sample of Cycladic architecture and one of the most photographed spots of the Mediterranean, you will visit the Folklore Museum, situated in a beautiful house from the 11th century. Continue on to the picturesque Alefkandra, an area known as the "Little Venice" of Mykonos with the old captain houses built into the sea. The Windmills opposite Little Venice were used in the past to grind wheat, and from here you'll enjoy beautiful views of Little Venice and the sea. Then continue to the House of Lena where you can see the style of furniture and personal belongings of the family. Before returning to the hotel, take a Greek 'meze', including various Greek dips and olives, feta cheese, and tomatoes in a local tavern. While you enjoy a wine tasting, your guide will tell you about the history of Greek wines.
